Citrus Realtors trek to Tallahassee

The rising market is a good time for a real estate market that offers real estate services. The new year brings the chance to choose the right realtor. Whether you are a primary homebuyer or an experienced buyer, the realtor is your right hand through the process. At the Realtors Association of Citrus County, our priorities are to help you find your dream home at the right price and terms that fit your budget.

The need for affordable housing is still a lot more work to be done. In order to address this need, we must work together to create new financial opportunities and expand additional safeguards. The need for affordable housing is still a lot more work to be done. In order to address this need, we must work together to create new financial opportunities and expand additional safeguards. The need for affordable housing is still a lot more work to be done.

During the 2018 Great American Realtors Days in Tallahassee, local real estate professionals, including Realtors Association of Citrus County Past President Sarah Lambert at top), Sen. Wilton Simpson (above, left), Sen. Rob La Rosa, Rep. Ralph Sallada (right), Rep. Tracie Davis (below) and others expanded the options available to consumers and discussed services to help Florida’s residents and businesses continue to thrive.

The Annual Business Partner Showcase was held on Friday, Oct. 13, 2017, at the Citrus County Fairgrounds. The event was a fundraiser to raise funds for the Realtors Association of Citrus County. The event featured business partners from around the county along with almost 200 attendees.

The new year brings the chance to choose the right realtor. Whether you are a primary homebuyer or an experienced buyer, the realtor is your right hand through the process. At the Realtors Association of Citrus County, our priorities are to help you find your dream home at the right price and terms that fit your budget.

The need for affordable housing is still a lot more work to be done. In order to address this need, we must work together to create new financial opportunities and expand additional safeguards. The need for affordable housing is still a lot more work to be done. In order to address this need, we must work together to create new financial opportunities and expand additional safeguards.

The rising market is a good time for a real estate market that offers real estate services. The new year brings the chance to choose the right realtor. Whether you are a primary homebuyer or an experienced buyer, the realtor is your right hand through the process. At the Realtors Association of Citrus County, our priorities are to help you find your dream home at the right price and terms that fit your budget.

The need for affordable housing is still a lot more work to be done. In order to address this need, we must work together to create new financial opportunities and expand additional safeguards. The need for affordable housing is still a lot more work to be done. In order to address this need, we must work together to create new financial opportunities and expand additional safeguards.

The rising market is a good time for a real estate market that offers real estate services. The new year brings the chance to choose the right realtor. Whether you are a primary homebuyer or an experienced buyer, the realtor is your right hand through the process. At the Realtors Association of Citrus County, our priorities are to help you find your dream home at the right price and terms that fit your budget.

The need for affordable housing is still a lot more work to be done. In order to address this need, we must work together to create new financial opportunities and expand additional safeguards. The need for affordable housing is still a lot more work to be done. In order to address this need, we must work together to create new financial opportunities and expand additional safeguards.

The rising market is a good time for a real estate market that offers real estate services. The new year brings the chance to choose the right realtor. Whether you are a primary homebuyer or an experienced buyer, the realtor is your right hand through the process. At the Realtors Association of Citrus County, our priorities are to help you find your dream home at the right price and terms that fit your budget.

The need for affordable housing is still a lot more work to be done. In order to address this need, we must work together to create new financial opportunities and expand additional safeguards. The need for affordable housing is still a lot more work to be done. In order to address this need, we must work together to create new financial opportunities and expand additional safeguards.

The rising market is a good time for a real estate market that offers real estate services. The new year brings the chance to choose the right realtor. Whether you are a primary homebuyer or an experienced buyer, the realtor is your right hand through the process. At the Realtors Association of Citrus County, our priorities are to help you find your dream home at the right price and terms that fit your budget.